Dear Mr. Nader:

Happy New Year!

As the first order of business on this first business day of 1997, I would like to follow-up our previous correspondence and conversations with you about our non-profit, non-partisan citizens' organization, the Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc., by scheduling an appointment. We know how very busy you are and appreciate all that you do, but CJA needs your guidance and support.

I will be in Washington on Thursday, January 23, 1997 in connection with the police matter reflected at page 11 of our June 28, 1996 letter to Senate Judiciary Chairman Hatch. A copy of that letter was enclosed with my December 4th letter to you. Would it be possible to meet with you in the afternoon of January 23rd or, if more convenient, the following day?

If you are unavailable on either of those days, would you be good enough to schedule some other time to see us. We will gladly make a special trip to Washington.

Yours for a quality judiciary,

ELENA RUTH SASSOWER, Coordinator
Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc.
