Dear Ms. Sassower:

I have received your March 13, 1996 facsimile transmission expressing the Center for Judicial Accountability's opposition to the Committee on the Profession and the Courts' recommendation to open attorney disciplinary proceedings to public scrutiny.

Your commentary is appreciated. The Committee's proposal has been the subject of much commentary and debate. The views of the Center for Judicial Accountability will be given careful consideration as we undertake a comprehensive reappraisal of the attorney disciplinary system.

Very truly yours,
