Subject: BTW -- When will the Commission to Investigate Public Corruption be Holding its Next Public Hearings at Which the Public Will be Able to Testify as to the Breadth of Public Corruption Within its Knowledge & Experience?

In the event you did not see my oral testimony before the Commission at its September 17th hearing in Manhattan about how it was conducting its hearings & its conflicts of interests, etc., here's the direct link to the 12-minute video clip, as posted on the webpage of my testimony: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/commission-to-investigate-public-corruption/people-evidence/sassower-elena.htm>

When will the Commission to Investigate Public Corruption be Holding its Next Public Hearings at Which the Public Will be Able to Testify as to the Breadth of Public Corruption Within its Knowledge & Experience?

Attached is the Center for Judicial Accountability's October 4th letter to the Commission, asking that question. It is posted on our website, www.judgewatch.org, on our webpage entitled "The People Have Something to Say -- & Evidence to Back It Up!" Here's the direct link: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/commission-to-investigate-public-corruption/people-evidence/menu-people-evidence.htm>.

Also, here's your competition in reporting on the Commission:

- (1) Cynthia Pooler's internet radio show, "Focus on Albany", has begun a series of shows about the Commission, the first of which is an interview of me entitled "Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. Seeks Public Participation in the Commission to Investigate Public Corruption". Here's the direct link: <http://www.focusonalbany.com/radio-interviews/item/94-elena-sassower-seeks-public-participation-in-the-moreland-commission> .
- (2) Musician Will Galison, who sidelines as a citizen journalist, has some splendid video interviews of the Commission's Executive Director, Regina Calcaterra, and Legislative Director, John Amodeo, spruced up with dramatic music and explanatory text to underscore the discrepancy between the Commission's name and purpose and how it is operating. Here's the link to his trilogy of videos, posted on our webpage "Building Our Own People's Media": <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/commission-to-investigate-public-corruption/people%27s%20media/people%27s-media.htm> .

By the way, our webpage “Building Our Own People’s Media” is among the webpages of our “People’s Campaign to Hold the Commission to Investigate Public Corruption True to its Name & Announced Purpose”, accessible via the our homepage of our website, www.judgewatch.org .

Feel free to call me with any questions.

Thank you.
