RE: United States of America v. Elena Ruth Sassower, M-4113-03
"Disruption of Congress"

Dear Ms. Liu:

Following up our conversation in court on June 1st, I would appreciate a copy of the Government's superseding "Information" – both the one which left intact the May 23, 2003 date of the original -- to which I objected – and the subsequent "Information", bearing an April 2004 date.

Please also confirm that the Government submitted two "Proposed Elements of the Offense": the first in response to Judge Holeman's signed "Elements of the Offense" (with its stamped 4-13-04 date of mailing from chambers); and the second, following upon my observation in court that the third element of your "Proposed Elements of the Offense" failed to include the language of D.C. 503.16(b)(4):

"and either House thereof, or the orderly conduct within any such building of a hearing before, and deliberations of, a committee or subcommittee of the Congress and either House thereof."

I do not have a copy of that second "Government's Proposed Elements of the Offense" – and would appreciate a copy – as well as a copy of what Judge Holeman ultimately signed, which I do not have.

Thank you.

ELENA RUTH SASSOWER
