RE: Safekeeping the Videotape, Etc.
Elena Ruth Sassower v. United States of America
#04-CM-760 & #04-CO-1600 ("Disruption of Congress" Case)

Dear Mr. Pinkston,

This follows up our phone conversations earlier this year wherein I asked you to ensure the safekeeping of the videotape that Chief Judge Washington's March 15, 2006 order had directed the Clerk of the D.C. Superior Court to transmit to the D.C. Court of Appeals as a "supplemental record" in the above consolidated appeals.

Please confirm that such videotape, which the U.S. Attorney had introduced into evidence at trial, will be retained by the D.C. Court of Appeals – or by the D.C. Superior Court – and, in no event, returned to the U.S. Attorney.

Finally, enclosed is my $15 check reimbursing you for the cost of mailing to me the extra copies of my appeal papers no longer needed by the D.C. Court of Appeals following its March 20, 2007 order denying my petition for rehearing and rehearing en banc, etc. and issuance of the mandate. Such were two sets of the three-volume appendix I had filed with the Court on June 28, 2005.

Thank you.

Yours for a quality judiciary,

ELENA RUTH SASSOWER
Appellant Pro Se
