Subject: Bringing Accountability to the U.S. Supreme Court -- Starting with Reporters & Scholars

I have tried three times to send you the below message – and attachment. Each time it has come back as undeliverable. So, I will now send it without the attachment.

Please access the attachment – my December 11th memo to you – from CJA’s website, www.judgewatch.org, via the sidebar panel “Disruption of Congress’-The Appeals”. Click on the link for “Media -- & Academia” and scroll to your name, which posts our communications.

I look forward to your response.

Thank you.

Following up my November 19th e-mail to you, attaching CJA’s press release “How Does the U.S. Supreme Court Handle Misconduct Complaints against its Staff?”, attached is my December 11th memo to you, entitled:

“CONTRIBUTING TO SCHOLARSHIP & TEACHING: Examining the Truth of David Margolick’s Criticism of U.S. Supreme Court Reporters and Scholars in His September 23, 2007 New York Times Book Review of The Nine: Inside the Secret World of the Supreme Court”.

I look forward to your response.

Thank you.
