As requested, I am resending this August 25th e-mail to you -- coincidentally sent on the same day as you posted the video of Mr. Spitzer's retort that you had asked a "ridiculous question" which he amplified by saying "Let it be perfectly clear, I created a public integrity unit that has done more at the Attorney General's office, has used its jurisdiction more creatively, more aggressively, than ever in history.... There has been nobody tougher, more aggressive, more determined to root out government fraud and corruption than this Attorney General's office..."

It's time for the media to finally expose the hoax of Mr. Spitzer's "public integrity unit" -- and of Mr. Spitzer himself. Mr. Spitzer's answer to you gives you the perfect lead in to the fully-documented story chronicled on our website, www.judgwatch.org -- and succinctly described by the correspondence posted on our "Elections 2006: Informing the Voters" webpage under the heading "Seaching for Champions".

I look forward to discussing this with you, following your review.
