Subject: You can win, easily & without money, NY's 64th Assembly seat. All it takes is "whistle-blowing".

Dear Candidate Tannousis,

I am director & co-founder of the non-partisan, non-profit citizens' organization, Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA), based in White Plains, New York – quite close to Pace Law School, where you earned your JD degree. Parenthetically, my sister – like yourself, also went to college at SUNY Binghamton.

You can win your Conservative Party primary for New York's 64th Assembly seat, easily and without money – and the general election. All it takes is "whistle-blowing" from the bully-pulpit of your candidacy. Please call me for details – and the EVIDENCE that backs it up, accessible from CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org.

On the assumption that you are unfamiliar with Article VII, §§1-7 of the New York State Constitution pertaining to the fashioning and enactment of the state budget, here it is: <https://codes.findlaw.com/ny/constitution-of-the-state-of-new-york/#!tid=N9A526E8102AB49058F336F851D9B3DA7>. I'd like to begin our conversation by discussing it – as the preservation of conservative values of fiscal restraint and a budget free of policy cannot be advanced without understanding its provisions.

I look forward to hearing from you soon – and am available over the weekend and in the evenings. Please be in front of a computer, when you call.

Thank you.
