

To our Children

On behalf of our grandchild Wendy Lee, the child of our beloved daughter Ethel and the child/children of any other child who may predecease us, it is our wish that our surviving children use the share which would otherwise have gone to the predeceased child/children for the benefit of her/his child/children.

This letter is but a request, and is not to be construed as creating any trust, or any mandatory obligation.

July 4/1957

Braham Lipsan
Rose Lipsan