Dear Elena (and others),

When I returned to work yesterday (after a three week business/pleasure trip to North Carolina, Virginia and Washington, DC), a package was waiting for me from you and in it was a wonderful card with a very kind note as well as the Gilbert and Sullivan CD set. I was very pleased and want to thank you so much for your kindness and generosity!

I will enjoy the music and think of you and your Uncle Dave whenever I listen to it—as well as at other times also. The photos are wonderful and thanks for them also. I wonder if the photo came out of the two of us by the FAX machine??

Hopefully, you are well and it is not as hot and humid in NYC as it was on our trip.

Please take care and thank you again and again for the wonderful gift!

Jim
