ADLERSTEIN—Fannie, on January 24, 2000 at the age of 79. Beloved wife of the late Samuel. Loving mother of Larry and Michael. Adoring grandmother of Ben, Sarah, Ana, Sirena, Jacob and David. Sister of Lucy Lasoff, Jackie Sapoff and Bessie Cymrot. Service Thursday, 12 PM, at "Riverside Memorial Chapel", 21 West Broad Street, Mt. Vernon, N.Y.

AMES—Amyas, 93. Formerly of New York, died peacefully at home in Lexington, Massachusetts, on Monday, January 24, 2000. He is survived by his beloved wife Lucia Millham Ames, two sons Oakes and Edward Ames of New York City, two daughters Olivia Hoblitzelle of Cambridge, MA, and Joan Ames of Eugene, OR. 11 grandchildren and six great grandchildren. A Memorial Service will be held at 11:30 AM on February 4th at the First Parish Church, 14 Bedford Road, Lincoln, MA. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to the Brookhaven Nature Trail Fund, Brookhaven at Lexington, 1010 Waltham St, Lexington, MA, 02173.

AMES—Amyas. With great sadness, the Board and staff of Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, Inc. mourn the passing of Amyas Ames, Chairman of the Board of Lincoln Center from 1970 to 1981 and Chairman of the Board of New York Philharmonic from 1970 to 1983. Amyas led Lincoln Center through an accomplished yet challenging decade. He welcomed a number of new Lincoln Center constituent organizations, oversaw the reconstruction of Avery Fisher Hall, and became the driving force behind the Lincoln Center Fund. Under his leadership, several Lincoln Center hallmarks came into being: "Live from Lincoln Center", the Lincoln Center Institute for Arts in Education, The Consolidated Corporate Fund, and a greatly expanded series of community programs. In addition to successful fund raising for Lincoln Center, he showed great personal generosity as well. On a national level, he was a tireless advocate for the arts. As a Honorary Chairman of Lincoln Center since 1981, he remained a devoted and involved friend. We send our condolences to his wife Lucia Millham Ames, his children Oakes, Edward, Joan and Olivia Hoblitzelle and to his grandchildren and his great grandchildren. Beverly Sillis, Chairman
Nathan Leventhal, President
Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, Inc.

AMES—Amyas. The Philharmonic Symphony Society of New York, Inc., deeply mourns the passing of Amyas Ames, Chairman Emeritus, who served as a tireless advocate of the New York Philharmonic for many years. Mr. Ames joined the Philharmonic's Board of Directors in 1955, and soon assumed a number of leadership positions, including President, 1963-1970, and Chairman, 1970-1983. During his tenure, he served as President and Chairman of the Society experienced an unprecedented expansion, including the implementation of free concerts in the Parks and the Live from Lincoln Center broadcasts. Among his many contributions, Mr. Ames was instrumental in the renovation and renaming of Avery Fisher Hall, completed in 1976. He was given FELD—Isabel. Congregation Ohab Zedek Manhattan deeply mourns the passing of a loving, charming and generous lady who was our staunch supporter for over five decades. We fondly remember her son Gerald, whom she now joins. To her devoted husband and life partner Harold, daughter Stephanie and grandson Ben our warmest sympathies. May they be comforted among the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.

Rabbi Allen Schwartz

Deaths

GOTTLIEB—Jules A. With great sadness the employees of ABCO Refrigeration Supply Corp. mourn the passing of Jules A. Gottlieb, Founder and President for more than fifty years. To everyone who knew him, he was, and always will be, a great inspiration. Mr. Gottlieb is irreplaceable to the members of his organization, his customers, and HVAC/R manufacturers throughout the country. Mr. Gottlieb believed each customer and every transaction had to be treated as ABCO's most important customer and most valuable sale. The employees of ABCO take pride in having learned Jules's creed, and seek to fulfill his commitment to excellence each and every day.
George Moncher, Jon Gottlieb and Michael Senter and All of the Employees of ABCO Refrigeration Corp.

GOTTLIEB—Jules Arthur. Of Manhasset, NY and Boca Raton, FL, died peacefully at home January 26, 2000. Beloved and trusted partner in ABCO Refrigeration Supply Corp. for more than fifty years. Mr. Gottlieb built the company into one of the leading air conditioning and refrigeration wholesale distribution organizations in the country. He is a best friend who could never be replaced and never will be forgotten.
George and Ruth Moncher

GOTTLIEB—Jules. Service Guild, the Auxiliary of L.I.J., sadly extends condolences to Ann, a past President, and her family on the loss of her husband, Jules. Jules has been a dedicated force towards the advancement of women's health. Our thoughts are with you.
Florence Hausner and Vivian Jaeger, Co-Presidents
