A Case for the Resignations of Cong. HAMILTON FISH (Republican)
Cong. NITA M. LOWEY (Democrat)

"You have sat too long here for any good you have been doing. Depart, I say, let us be done with you. In the Name of God, Go! (Oliver Cromwell)

1. Congressional representatives, such as Cong. Hamilton Fish, ranking minority member of the Judiciary Committee, and Cong. Nita M. Lowey, on the Congressional Task Force on Government Waste, who cannot, or will not, perform an essential obligation of office, should resign, alternatively rejected by the electorate.

2. Chief U.S. District Court Judge CHARLES L. BRIEANT, has been involved in the diversion of substantial monies payable "to the federal court" to the private pockets of his cronies, and Cong. Fish and Cong. Lowey have done nothing!

Chief Judge Brieant has been involved in the extortion of "millions of dollars" in favor of his cronies, in exchange for avoiding incarceration under a criminal conviction, and Cong. Fish and Cong. Lowey have done nothing!

Chief Judge Brieant was involved in the larceny of judicial trust assets, wherein none of the legitimate creditors received anything, and Cong. Fish and Cong. Lowey have done nothing!

3. Congress enacted a statute which provides that any member of federal government, including the military, is entitled to federal representation, at federal cost and expense, provided that the Attorney General or any one of 96 other federal officials (28 CFR 15.5), certifies that the official or employee sued "was acting within the scope of his office or employment" (28 U.S.C. 2679(d)), otherwise he personally pays for his own legal representation and personally satisfies any judgment recovered.

Obviously, none of the 97 aforementioned will issue a "scope certificate" for Chief Judge Brieant for conduct which includes diverting monies "payable to the federal court" to the pockets of his cronies.

Nevertheless, employing the clout of his office, Chief Judge Brieant has been able to dragoon federal representation, at federal cost and expense, for his criminal racketeering activities, and neither Cong. Fish nor Cong. Lowey have done anything about this fraudulent expenditure of federal monies.

4. The constitutional scheme is one of "checks and balances", and the congressional obligation is to "check" the excesses or misdeeds of the executive and judicial branches, or its members, with the power to impeach.

Cong. Fish, neither individually nor as the ranking minority member of the judiciary committee, has done anything to curtail the criminal racketeering practices of Chief Judge Brieant, although impeachment is clearly mandated.

Cong. Lowey, neither individually nor as a member of the Congressional Task Force on Government Waste, has done anything to recoup the monies payable "to the federal court" from the pockets of Chief Judge Brieant's cronies, or cease the fraudulent expenditure of federal monies where no "scope certificate" has been issued for Chief Judge Brieant's privately motivated criminal activities.

5. The aforementioned are only some of the criminal racketeering activities of Chief Judge Brieant, all of which are fully documented and never have been controverted at any time or place.

6. There is and can be no legitimate excuse for the derelictions of office of either Cong. Fish or Cong. Lowey.

In the name of God and the American people, Cong. Fish and Cong. Lowey, along with Chief Judge Brieant, must "go"!
