Re: Irwin Brownstein, Esq.

Gentlemen:

1. As the above intended, in his manifest betrayal of his client, the Appellate Division yesterday affirmed without opinion, and the above obviously soaked his client for the privilege of being betrayed.

2. Until you compel Lee Feltman, Esq., the court appointed receiver to file his accounting for Puccini Clothes, Ltd., as required by law in every jurisdiction, this list of corrupted lawyers and officials will continue to grow.

3a. I draw your attention that the totally void agreement of November 4, 1985 also provides:

"Raffe shall permanently be and is hereby is enjoined and restrained, whether acting simply or in conjunction with any person or entity or acting at the behest, direction or instigation of any person or entity, and whether acting individually, on behalf of Puccini or in any other capacity, from filing or serving any papers, or attempting to intervene in or initiate, any action, proceeding, investigation or other adversary matter, or causing any of the foregoing, in any state or federal court, tribunal, agency or other forum of this or any other state, territory or foreign country, the subject matter of which arises out of or relates to any matter or thing affecting or connected in any way with Puccini or its dissolution in receivership including, without limitation, any or all of the following: (a) the action or conduct of Puccini or its shareholders, officers, directors or employees, or any of them, either singly or in any combination; (b) the judicial dissolution or the receivership of Puccini; (c) the conduct of the Receiver for Puccini or the representation of the Receiver by or any act or omission of Feltman, Karesh & Major or any member thereof, associate attorney, legal assistant or other employee associated therewith; (d) the making or filing of any complaint, grievance or correspondence with a professional disciplinary or grievance committee" [emphasis supplied]

b. Although the aforementioned is manifestly unlawful, if you do not hear from Mr. Raffe, you will understand it is because of the aforementioned prohibition and trialess convictions in the Murphy fiefdom.

c. While Mr. Raffe may be willing forfeit his American right to be free, I absolutely will not!

Very truly yours,

GEORGE SASSOWER
