Re: Chairperson & Chief Judge JUDITH S. KAYE

Dear Mr. Kiklier,

1. With respect to your letter of acknowledgment of October 29, 1993, my letter of complaint, dated October 20, 1993, is directed to the above, and only the above.

This statement is prompted by your closing remark that your commission "has no jurisdiction over judges who are no longer in office."

2. My point is made necessary because some of the judges who Assistant N.Y. State Attorney General Ronald P. Younkings purported to represent, in his motion of October 12, 1993, did not ask for his legal representation, as of that date.

Certainly, members of the judiciary who did not request Mr. Younkings' representation, should not be charged with defrauding the state treasury.

I do believe, nevertheless, that the misconduct of Assistant Attorney General Younkings should be turned over, by your commission, to the proper disciplinary authorities.

Most Respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER
