THE WISDOM OF JOSEPH P. KENNEDY

January 1987

Justices of the Supreme Court
First Judicial Department

Dear Sirs:

1a. "Don't get angry, get even", said the President's father.

b. If such advise was good for the President, it is good for me!

2. In January 1986, Referee DONALD [Khadaffy] DIAMOND and his criminal friends, physically hijacked my motion from the Clerk of the Motion Support Part, which sought to change the venue for the litigation involving PUCCINI CLOTHES, LTD. and to compel the "thieving" court-appointed receiver, LEE FELTMAN, Esq., to account.

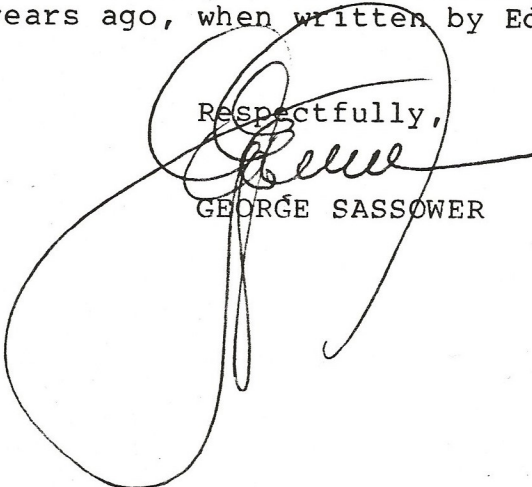

b. Instead Referee DONALD DIAMOND issued an Order directing the Sheriff of Westchester County to "break into" my premises, "seize all word processing equipment, including my soft ware", and to "inventory" my possessions.

c. To protest this outrageous intrusion, I began to send my communications to your homes, as my way of "getting even"!

3a. I still am sending it to your homes, where known, more now as a protest at your silence on the subject.

b. "The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing", is as valid today, as it was almost two hundred years ago, when written by Edmund Burke!

Respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER
