Re: Greylord - New York.

Dear Mr. Eiseman,

Since I have received no response to my letter of October 10, 1989 and I now have given a copy of same to, inter alia, Ms. Shirley Perlman a journalist associated with Long Island Newsday.

Perhaps Ms. Perlman can obtain a response from you regarding the intentions of the Office of Court Administration with respect to the Judiciary Law §35-a filings regarding Puccini Clothes, Ltd.

Since I, a private person, without any obligation to disclose, make no effort to conceal my intended actions, I fail to understand your governmental silence, where the mandate is to disclose and act.

Is it the policy of the Office of Court Administration to conceal the fact that 'the coins of the judicial realm' in this jurisdiction is 'pay-offs'?

Most Respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER
