Re: Sassower v. Signorelli et al.
84 Civ. 2989 [JM]

Honorable Sir:

1. Enclose please find copies of Exhibit "A" which were inadvertently omitted from the original and courtesy copy of my opposing affidavit of October 15, 1984, to the Attorney General's Rule 12(b) motion. I regret any inconvenience caused thereby.

2a. The Suffolk County Attorney has requested, and I have consented, to the adjournment of my motion before Hon. Gerard L. Goettel to October 26, 1984.

b. It my view a statement by Your Honor and possibly of His Honor's law secretary regarding the March 17, 1978 conference with Mr. Larsen is important, in that action.

While Your Honor's "Memorandum of Decision and Order" of March 21, 1978, is indicative of the Court's view, the more direct opinion expressed at such conference should advance the interests of truth and justice.

c. I will make myself available for Your Honor's earliest convenience on the subject.

Most respectfully,

GEORGE SASSOWER
