Re: George Sassower, Esq., o/b/o Sam Polur v. Cunningham

Dear Mr. Sassower:

The Court has received your 500.2 jurisdictional statement and may examine its subject matter jurisdiction sua sponte with respect to whether a substantial constitutional question is directly involved so as to support an appeal as of right (CPLR 5601[b]).

This communication is without prejudice to any motion any party may wish to make. If you conclude that the order is not appealable as of right, please arrange for the execution of a stipulation consenting to a dismissal of the appeal and transmit that paper to my office. If a stipulation is to be forthcoming, please inform me immediately.

On the other hand, if you wish to persevere in the appeal, you are invited to present to the Court in writing within ten days of this letter's date your comments justifying the retention of subject matter jurisdiction. Your adversaries are likewise afforded this opportunity.

If this sua sponte inquiry is terminated by the Court, the Clerk will notify counsel in writing and set a new schedule for normal perfecting of the appeal.

Very truly yours,

Kathryn C. Brown
