Re: Matter of Appl. of Mario M. Castracan & Vincent F. Bonelli
Vs: Anthony J. Colavita, Esq., Howard Miller, Esq., et al
Case #1201/90

Dear Madam:

At 9:30 A.M. this date, I called the office of Howard Miller, Esq. and spoke with his secretary. I informed her that I had an Order to Show Cause to serve on Mr. Miller. She advised me that Mr. Miller was in Albany. I then told her I would be coming to his office and I would serve her.

She asked me to call back in fifteen minutes. I called back at 10:00 A.M. and she advised me that she was instructed not to accept service. She would not tell me by whom she was instructed.

At 10:30 A.M. I arrived at Mr. Miller's office and was advised by the receptionist that there was no one in the office. She would not give me her name. I, therefore, served the receptionist as "Jane Doe".

Respectfully,

Louis J. Amarosa
Deputy Sheriff
