Dear Ms. Hogan:

We trust that by this time you are in receipt of the critique which we submitted to the Senate Judiciary Committee last May--and the correspondence related thereto--particularly the May 18th and June 2nd letters addressed to Senate Majority Leader Mitchell.

Although I left two telephone messages for you yesterday, I did not hear from you. Please call ASAP so that arrangements for review of the critique can be authorized.

So as to ensure that action will be forthcoming, I am planning to come down to Washington on Thursday--and would appreciate an appointment with an attorney on staff.

You may wish to read the Gannett editorial which is being faxed herewith together with a coverletter sent today to the President of the City Bar.
