RE: F.O.I.L. request for stenographic transcript of the Senate Judiciary Committee's March 6, 2007 "hearing" to confirm the reappointment of Chief Judge Judith S. Kaye

Dear Ms. Luther:

Pursuant to F.O.I.L., I hereby request a copy of the stenographic transcript of the Senate Judiciary Committee's March 6, 2007 "hearing" to confirm the reappointment of New York Court of Appeals Judge Judith S. Kaye.

To better ensure the accuracy of the transcript, I enclose a copy of the sheet of paper from which I read when – as Chairman DeFrancisco was closing the "hearing" – I rose and asked:

"Chairman DeFrancisco and Ranking Member Hassell-Thompson, may I testify as to the documentary evidence establishing Chief Judge Kaye's lack of qualifications and fitness? – specifically her corruption in office, both administrative and judicial, as to which I have direct, first-hand testimonial experience and capacity."

Please advise, by fax (914-428-4994), as to the cost of a copy of the transcript – which I will promptly remit.

Thank you.

Yours for a quality judiciary,
