Dear Constituent,

Thank you for your e-mail message. As you might imagine, I receive a tremendous amount of electronic mail. Each one of them is read. However, due to the volume, I must limit replies to any issue of interest to my constituents, and to those pertaining to issues before the committees upon which I serve.

If you have not already shared your address, will you please be kind enough to do so? This identifies my constituents in the 6th Senate District.

We would like to respond to your communication in a timely fashion, but ask for your patience due to extensive legislative duties both within my district as well as in Albany.

I sincerely appreciate hearing from you. Your opinions are important to me as I work to represent your interests.

Sincerely,

Senator Kemp Hannon
Sixth Senatorial District

I received your e-mail and will respond in detail in the near future. Unfortunately, my response may not come as quickly as I might like due to the sheer volume of e-mails I receive, and time constraints.

Your patience is appreciated with regard to this matter.

Sincerely,

Senator Liz Krueger

P.S. It would be helpful if you would send me your name and local address.

Thank you for e-mailing my office. Your comments and suggestions are very important to me and an integral part of the legislative process. If you have not already done so, please forward your name and address to my office. This will allow us to better stay in touch and provide you with information that we may not be able to e-mail. Due to the volume of e-mail received, I cannot always personally respond to every message, especially if you are not from my Senate District. However, every resident's suggestions and concerns are given consideration, and where appropriate, forwarded to the Senator representing their area.

Again, thank you for your e-mail and your continuing interest.

Sincerely,

Serphin R. Maltese
State Senator, Queens County

My office is in receipt of your e-mail. Thank you for sharing your thoughts with me.

As you can imagine, my office receives many e-mails regarding a number of state-related issues. My correspondence is answered by mail using the United States Postal Service. If you have not already done so, please include your full name and mailing address so that I can properly respond to your concerns. In the event that you do not live in the 41st Senate District, courtesy dictates that your own New York State Senator be afforded the opportunity to address your concerns, therefore I will forward your correspondence to your Senator. If you are writing to me as Chairman of the Children and Families Committee and you do not live in my Senate District, I regret that I may not be able to provide you with a written response, but will keep your concerns in mind as I consider matters pending before my Committee.

Thank you again for contacting my office.

Stephen M. Saland
Senator
