Re: McFadden v. Sassower

Dear Ms. Sassower:

In response to your letter dated July 30, 2008, please be advised that you have been afforded full and reasonable access to the complete court record on all matters requested, and that same has occurred on several occasions. Further, any court record(s) which you have requested, and which were previously reduced to microfilm, have been provided to you in its entirety. The Court remains ready and willing to accommodate any reasonable request you may have with respect to records and/or your appeal. However, judicial resources and staffing simply cannot entertain repeated and duplicative requests for material previously reviewed by and/or provided to you by the Court.

Very truly yours,

Patricia Lupi
Chief Clerk
