Dear Litigation Bureau Chief Dvorin,

Following up the voice mail message I left for you moments ago, I am awaiting to hear the results of your review -- and to discuss with you the relief I will be seeking in the order to show cause with preliminary injunction & TRO that I will be presenting tomorrow at 11 am before Justice Hartman, your former colleague.

Meantime, attached are two more FOIL/records requests pertaining to the Senate and Assembly's purported "amended" debt service budget bills.

In view of the issues here -- and the state of the record -- I trust that you, or some high-level supervisor in the Attorney General's Office, or Attorney General Schneiderman will be coming to court tomorrow -- and with responsive documents -- and familiarity with the Court of Appeals' consolidated decision in Pataki v. Assembly & Silver v. Pataki, 4 NY 3d 75 (2004).

Please forward to all your superiors.

Thank you.

Subject: Thank you -- RE: "Concerns" -- RE: CJA v Cuomo citizen taxpayer action: #5122-16 -- plaintiffs' Feb 15 OSC: adjournment request & notice to Attorney General

Dear Litigation Bureau Chief Dvorin --

I will call you on Monday morning, if I do not hear from you before then, so that we can discuss the order to show cause for a preliminary injunction, with TRO, that I will be presenting on Tuesday.

Consistent with my March 24th letter to Justice Hartman, stating:

"By this letter, plaintiffs give notice to AAG Kerwin -- and her highest superiors, including Attorney General Schneiderman -- to bring to the March 28th oral argument records responsive to these four FOIL/records requests and come prepared to demonstrate to the Court how the fiscal year 2017-2018 'amended' budget bills -- and the Senate and Assembly one-house resolutions, based on the 'amended' bills, with their accompanying summary of changes, already made to the budget bills -- are anything less than a sub silentio repudiation of Article VII, §§4, 5, 6 of the New York State
