Dear Cam,

Thank you, sincerely, for your kind message. No problem at all with the time frame, as the citizen-taxpayer action is fully submitted, pending decision, in Albany Supreme Court: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/budget/citizen-taxpayer-action/2nd/menu-2nd-citizen-taxpayer-action.htm>.

Feel free to call me, if I can assist in facilitating your review – however early or late, including on weekends. It would be my privilege to answer any questions you have.

Again, thank you so very much. I have no doubt that the Government Law Center can powerfully contribute to ensuring that the case reaches its far-reaching, constitutional potential, eradicating so much of the corruption that has plagued this state.

Most respectfully,

Elena

Elena - Thank you for your submission. I will try to work through the materials you sent and circle back in the next few weeks. Let me know if that time frame presents a problem. - Cam

Details about Situation:

Citizen-taxpayer action, brought on behalf of the People of the State of New York, challenging the constitutionality and lawfulness of the legislative budget, the judiciary budget, the whole of the executive state budget -- and encompassing constitutional and legal challenges to the Legislature's closed-door party conferences and "three men in the room" budget dealmaking. It is pending in Supreme Court/Albany County -- and its posture, verifiable from the lawsuit record, is one of SUMMARY JUDGMENT for the plaintiffs.

The full lawsuit record is posted on the website of the unfunded, nonpartisan, nonprofit citizens organization, Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA), the first plaintiff. The website is www.judgewatch.org -- and the lawsuit record is accessible via the prominent center link: "CJA's Citizen-Taxpayer actions to End NYS' Corrupt Budget 'Process' and Unconstitutional 'Three Men in a Room' Governance".

Attached are pertinent April 18, 2017 e-mails, illustrative of my exhaustive outreach efforts to secure scholarship, amicus and legal assistance. They -- and so many, many more, spanning years -- are also posted on CJA's website.
