Subject: Citizen-Taxpayer Action: CJA v Cuomo #5122-16

TO: Assistant Attorney General Adrienne Kerwin

This is to advise that I have spoken with Justice Denise Hartman's law clerk, Chris Liberati-Conant, and have obtained two weeks – to Friday, September 30th -- to respond to defendants' dismissal cross-motion that you sent me at 4:57 p.m. yesterday, returnable 9:30 a.m. today.

If I am able, my reply to your incorporated opposition to plaintiffs' September 2nd order to show cause for injunctive and disqualification relief will be furnished next week – and will be joined with a request for Justice Hartman's reconsideration of the TRO which Justice McDonough wrongfully struck.

Meantime, I am still waiting to hear from you as to THE THRESHOLD ISSUE of who, in the Attorney General's office, has independently evaluated plaintiffs' entitlement to the Attorney General's representation/intervention on their behalf, pursuant to State Finance Law Article 7-A and Executive Law §63.1. Did such individual review your cross-motion papers? Please furnish me with that information IMMEDIATELY – as likewise the names of those charged with supervisory oversight of your work-product, over and beyond defendant Attorney General Schneiderman.

Thank you.

Elena Sassower, Plaintiff Pro Se, individually & on behalf of the People of the State of New York & the Public Interest
