07.24.87	33	Fld. ORDER that all litigation papers and documents filed or served in this action by or on behalf of George Sassower in violation of this Court's May 15, 1987 directive or of this Order, shall be deemed to be a nullity and no party need respond thereto;; and it is further Ordered that all litigation papers and documents filed or served in this action by or on behalf of George Sassower shall contain a copy of this Order and a statement in the body of such litigation document concerning the provisions of this Order. So Ordered: Goettel, J. m/n
08.07.87	34	Fld. PROPOSED ORDER. The Court having considered all of the papers submitted by all parties and having heard the parties orally, and Due deliberation having been had and the Court having issued a Memorandum Decision dated July 7, 1987, now It is ORDERED that the motion to dismiss the complaint against defendants Abrams and Cook is Granted, and the complaint against them is Dismissed in its entirety, and It is Further Ordered that the motion for sanctions is held in abeyance. So Ordered: Goettel, J. m/n
08.06.87	35	Fld. NOTICE OF ENTRY OF ORDER
08.10.87	36	Fld. MEMORANDUM DECISION. We concede at the start that the final cause of action seeking damages against the private attorneys, violated earlier court injunctions However, the remainder of the action, as it pertained to his continued representation of criminal defts., does not seem to be within the ambit of any of the injunctions. Consequently, we view the contempt here as being marginal. In light of the numerous occasions on which Sassower has been found in contempt, we see little deterrent value in processing another contempt complaint against him. We concede that monetary sanctions may not be a sufficient deterrent either since Sassower has filed in bankruptcy and claimed to have few assets. (cont).

See In re Martin-Trigona 9 F.3d 226, 230 (2d Cir. 1993) ("The procedures adopted by this Court for disposition of 'leave to file' applications are a reasonable response to the harassing abuse of the litigation process that occasioned the imposition of the 'leave to file' requirement. Litigants like Martin and Sassower who abuse the judicial system forfeit their right to the full panoply of procedures available in the conduct of normal litigation. The procedures adopted in response to the demonstrated abuse that has occurred are necessary for the courts, the judges, and ultimately for the public, many of whom are victimized when vexatious litigants are permitted unrestricted opportunities to pursue their tactics of harassment."); see also Hong Mai Sa v. Doe, 406 F.3d 155, 157 (2d Cir. 2005) (denying plaintiff's petition for mandamus, where plaintiff "was enjoined from filing any document in the district court without prior approval," and plaintiff violated the order by giving papers to the clerk of that court, which the court refused to file or docket).
