Subject: Federal Lawsuit Suing Bloomberg News for Corruption-Abetting, Election-Rigging, Journalistic Fraud -- & specifically pertaining to the 2025 NYC mayoral & other top races

Attachments: cja-complaint-oct-8-2025-corrected.pdf

TO: Bloomberg News Editor-in-Chief John Micklethwait

I received no response from you to my below August 15th e-mail, requesting, including by its subject line, "...Oversight by Mr. Bloomberg & Legal Counsel", which I then sent you a second time. Did you forward it to Mr. Bloomberg and legal counsel as requested?

I separately sought to alert Mr. Bloomberg to the situation by a September 9th e-mail entitled "GOOD NEWS! You can take out Mamdani, easily & without money, for corruption as a NYS assemblyman – & you can do it as leaders of a patriotic non-partisan battle for honest, accountable, constitutional governance", which I sent to Bloomberg Philanthropies, following my phone conversation six hours earlier with someone there who would not give me her name (212-205-0100), followed by a voice mail message.

Two days ago, in the absence of response, I filed a federal lawsuit suing Bloomberg News and other press for corruption-abetting, election-rigging, journalistic fraud, specifically pertaining to the 2025 NYC mayoral and other top races. Above-attached and here-linked is the October 8th verified complaint.

Pursuant to Rule 4\(d\) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, you have "a duty to avoid unnecessary expenses of serving the summons" and I, as plaintiff, may request that you "waive service of [the] summons", which I am required to do by mail, enclosing a copy of the complaint, two copies of the waiver form and a stamped return envelope.

As a benefit of your timely return of the waiver, you get 60 days from the date of my mailed request within which to answer the complaint, rather than 21 days from the date of physical/personal service – and your waiving service of the summons does not waive any objection to personal jurisdiction or to venue. If, "without good cause", you fail to sign and return the waiver, "the court must impose" upon you "the expenses later incurred in making service" and "the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, of any motion required to collect expenses". "'Good cause' does not include a belief that the lawsuit is groundless, or that it has been brought in an improper venue, or that the court has no jurisdiction over this matter or over [you]".

I do not see on the Bloomberg News website, www.bloomberg.com, which is the same website as its Bloomberg, L.P. parent, any physical or mailing address. Wikipedia identifies 731 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York 10022, as the headquarters for both. I presume their counsel is the same.

Please furnish me with counsel's name and his/her e-mail address and phone number for purposes of service and so that he/she can take the appropriate and IMMEDIATE steps mandated by the First Amendment, journalism codes, and his/her professional responsibilities.

Thank you.

Subject: Your today's article "Mamdani Seeks to Charm NYC Business Leaders, Including JPMorgan's Dimon" -- & Oversight by Mr. Bloomberg & Legal Counsel

TO: Bloomberg News Editor-in-Chief John Micklethwait

RE your today's article "Mamdani Seeks to Charm NYC Business Leaders, Including JPMorgan's Dimon" by Amanda Gordon, Nacha Cattan, and Laura Nahmias, three of the reporters to whom my below August 5th e-mail was sent – without response from you, them, or anyone else.

What investigation, if any, did you do of the EVIDENCE furnished by my August 5th e-mail of Mamdani's corruption as a NYS assemblyman, involving the state budget, his legislative salary, and NY's oversight/"public protection" entities, such that you could continue to report on him as a viable candidate – indeed, the presumptive next NYC mayor – and NOT inform "NYC Business Leaders, Including JP Morgan's Dimon" that, as stated by my e-mail "he cannot be elected NYC mayor because he must be indicted for larceny and corruption – and...will be convicted".

Please advise, without delay – including whether my August 5th e-mail, which was indicated for Mr. Bloomberg's attention, was forwarded to him. If it was not, please forward this e-mail to him immediately and, additionally, to Bloomberg News legal counsel, whose name and contact information I request.

I am available to answer questions or to be interviewed, no matter how early or late. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE, obviously.

Thank you.

Subject: UNREPORTED STORY: Mamdani's corruption as a NYS assemblyman, involving the state budget, his legislative salary, & NY's oversight/"public protection" entities.

TO: BLOOMBERG NEWS – “Submit a Tip”

ATT: Michael Bloomberg
Editor-in-Chief John Micklethwait
Bloomberg Law New York State Court Correspondent Beth Wang (March 5th e-mail)

None of Bloomberg's reporting on Zohran Mamdani, including by your "Senior reporter... covering New York City and state politics" Laura Nahmias, reveals his corruption as a NYS assemblyman, destroying lawful, constitutional state governance, involving the state budget, his legislative salary, and NY's oversight/"public protection" entities – the subject of lawsuits and criminal and ethics complaints against him and his co-conspirators.

Establishing this corruption is open-and-shut and prima facie – with the EVIDENCE summarized by my above-attached and here-linked March 14th e-mail to Mamdani entitled "ELECTIONS ARE A TIME OF ACCOUNTABILITY...", which, with a March 17th supplementing e-mail to him, I provided to Bloomberg's Zach Williams and his fellow reporters of the Albany Legislative Correspondents Association (LCA) by a March 18th e-mail, cc'ing Mamdani. I also cc'd Mamdani on a March 20th e-mail to The New York Times, New York Post, Daily News, New York Law Journal, Wall Street Journal, and Associated Press, likewise furnishing the March 14th e-mail and its March 17th supplement. Mamdani did not deny or dispute the accuracy of any of it.

Evident from these, from my further April 7th and April 18th e-mails to Reporter Williams and the LCA roster, and from Mamdani's votes in May approving the FY2025-26 budget bills, is that he cannot be elected NYC mayor because he must be indicted for larceny and corruption – and that he will be convicted. You can confirm this fact from former Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of New York Jim Walden, running for mayor as an Independent candidate, with an anti-corruption policy platform featured on his campaign website. By contrast, Mamdani's campaign website contains no anti-corruption platform.

Below are my July 13th and July 11th e-mails to The New York Times about the foregoing – to which there has been no response. My subsequent e-mails to NY's other press are posted here.

I am available to discuss the foregoing and to answer your questions about this fully-documented election-upending story, bringing down not only Mamdani, but the field of NYC mayoral candidates. Also, such other NYC Democratic primary winners as NYS Senator Brad Hoylman-Sigal, running for Manhattan borough president, and NYC Democratic primary winner-incumbents NYC Public Advocate Jumanne Williams, Manhattan D.A. Alvin Bragg, and Brooklyn D.A. Eric Gonzalez – and that's for starters.

Thank you.

Subject: AGAIN -- The Times' "News Value" Standard & Confirmation "Through Direct Sources" -- MAMDANI, etc.

TO: New York Times Assistant Managing Editor Patrick Healy/Standards & Trust

Eight hours after sending you my below July 11th e-mail – whose several typos in Mamdani's name I have now corrected – the New York Post published "Zohran Mamdani's campaign persona called into question by vote to give himself raise: critics", identifying that "Mamdani did not respond to The Post's request for comment."

Apparently, The Post saw "news value" in its July 11th story. Do you? Will The Times be following up by requesting Mamdani's comment to The Post article – the tiniest sliver of Mamdani's hypocrisy and corruption that my below linked March 14th, March 17th, March 18th, and March 20th e-mails to him establish. Have you not yet determined their “news value”?

By the way, is The Times’ May 28th article “Mamdani Has a Thin Legislative Record but Is a Forceful Voice in Albany” the only article The Times published about his record as an assemblyman – so puny that it had to be bolstered by comments from other legislators, ALL Democrats, as to his “forceful voice” “to move the ideological center of the Assembly to the left”, intersplined with The Times’ usual anti-Israel slanting and slandering, consistent with Mamdani’s lies as, for instance, in stating: “Mr. Mamdani stands firm in his defense of Palestinians in Gaza, where over 53,000 people have been killed by Israeli forces” – when revealed by the hyperlink is that this figure is “according to Palestinian health officials, who do not distinguish between civilians and combatants” – in other words, it is according to Hamas.

Suffice to say, this May 28th article, by two of your three Albany reporters – recipients of my March 18th and March 20th e-mails and of my May 18th letter to Publisher Sulzberger – concealed the ENTIRETY of what the e-mails particularized, with evidence, and falsely made it appear as if there is nothing irregular in how the Legislature operates, including pertaining to the budget and this fiscal year, and the inclusion of policy – indeed, concluding, as follows:

“Perhaps the most telling evidence of Mr. Mamdani’s evolution came earlier this month, when the budget bills came up for a vote. As in years past, they contained scores of policy changes, not all to Mr. Mamdani’s liking. Mr. Mamdani voted yes.”

For that “yes” vote alone, Mamdani cannot be elected NYC’s next mayor, because – based on my e-mails to him – he must be indicted and will be convicted of corruption. If you have any doubt of this, you should “confirm it through direct sources”, such as former Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of New York Jim Walden, running for NYC mayor as an independent, with an anti-corruption policy platform featured on his campaign website.

Tellingly, Mamdani’s campaign website contains no anti-corruption platform – and none is reflected in The Times’ July 9th guest essay “If Zohran Mamdani Wins, Then What?” by Ross Barkan, with its required disclosure: “In 2018, when I ran for state senator in New York City, Mr. Mamdani was my campaign manager”. Barkan, a left-wing, agenda-driven journalist, is an accomplice to the corruption of lawful, constitutional state governance involving the Legislature, the budget, and pay raises. As far back as May 2013, I furnished him with the evidence of what was going on, including my April 15, 2013 complaint to then U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York Preet Bharara – sending him e-mail, after e-mail, to which he never responded. This includes when he was campaigning for the Senate, such as my October 4, 2017 and January 17, 2018 e-mails to him reflecting my entreaties that he could easily win election and, simultaneously, propel non-partisan, good-government reform if he would “blow the whistle” on the corruption of the Senate incumbent – entreaties I would repeat in my e-mails in 2020 to Mamdani, running against an Assembly incumbent. In any event, nothing could be more obscene than Barkan’s sentence, in his essay, “There cannot be any whiff of self-dealing or graft in the Mamdani administration”, considering that “self-dealing” and “graft” are precisely how Mamdani became and conducted himself as an assemblyman, in collusion with his fellow self-dealing, grafting legislators, who would then endorse and support his mayoral candidacy.

Please advise by no later than noon tomorrow, July 14th, whether you will be confirming from Mamdani the obvious truth of my e-mails to him, etc.

Thank you.

Subject: The Times' "News Value" Standard & Confirmation "Through Direct Sources" -- The "On-The-Job Performance" of Mamdani & Hoylman-Sigal as State Legislators, Corrupting Lawful, Constitutional State Governance & Irreparably Injuring the People of New York

TO: New York Times Assistant Managing Editor Patrick Healy/Standards & Trust

The Times' July 4th article "Mamdani Once Claimed to Be Asian and African American. Should It Matter?" quotes your statement:

"When we hear anything of news value, we try to confirm it through direct sources. Mr. Mamdani confirmed this information in an interview with The Times."

Are you aware of my March 14th e-mail to Mamdani entitled "ELECTIONS ARE A TIME OF ACCOUNTABILITY...", whose supplement I sent him on March 17th – thereafter sending both to him again when I cc'd him on my March 18th e-mail to the roster of Legislative Correspondents Association reporters – The Times' three Albany reporters among them – and then, again, when I cc'd him on my March 20th e-mail to The Times, New York Post, Daily News, New York Law Journal, Wall Street Journal, and Associated Press, with the five Times e-mail addresses being Metro and Editorial in addition to the three Albany reporters.

The March 20th e-mail I would then feature as "Example #1", at page 1, of my mailed May 18th letter to Publisher A.G. Sulzberger, e-mailed to eight Times e-mail addresses, including Editorial, Metro, and the three Albany reporters, on May 18th and May 19th.

As the "news value" of my e-mails to Mamdani is obvious, did The Times not ask him to confirm their equally obvious truth? And if not, why not – and will it do so now that he has won the Democratic primary to be New York City mayor?

Also, and plainly reinforcing, was the obvious “news value” of my March 16th e-mail to Senator Brad Hoylman-Sigal, also entitled “ELECTIONS ARE A TIME OF ACCOUNTABILITY...”, and additionally sent to him, twice, when I cc’d him on the March 18th and March 20th e-mails of which it was part. Did The Times not ask Hoylman-Sigal to confirm the equally obvious truth of these e-mails to him? If not, why not – and will it do so now that he has won the Democratic primary to be Manhattan borough president?

Please advise – including as to when you would like to interview me with respect to the foregoing election-upending EVIDENCE of the “on-the-job performance” of Mamdani and Hoylman-Sigal as state legislators, corrupting lawful, constitutional state governance and irreparably injuring the People of New York.

Thank you.
