Subject: EMPIRICAL EVIDENCE for your book about "the preconditions needed for a sustainable constitutional democracy" -- Federal Lawsuit Pursuant to the Guarantee Clause, in Vindication of the First Amendment & Constitutional, Lawful Governance

TO: Harvard Law School Professor Martha Minow

I am co-founder and director of the non-partisan, non-profit citizens' organization Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. \(CJA\) and am writing to alert you to a major federal lawsuit relevant to the book you are "currently writing...addressing the preconditions needed for a sustainable constitutional democracy", so-identified by your Harvard Law School webpage.

The lawsuit, which CJA and I have brought on our own behalf and "on behalf of the People of the State of New York & the Public Interest", is against The New York Times and 33 other press defendants. Above-attached and here-linked is the October 29th amended verified complaint, whose first paragraph reads:

"Pursuant to Article 4, §4 of the United States Constitution, 'The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government...', and the First Amendment to the Constitution pertaining to the press, as explicated by federal caselaw...and the First Amendment's guarantee of 'the right of the people...to petition the Government for a redress of grievances', and the further guarantees of the Fifth Amendment^{fn} and the Fourteenth Amendment, §1^{fn} to every 'person' of 'due process of law' and 'the equal protection of laws', plaintiffs seek declaratory relief and compensatory, presumed, and punitive damages against defendants for their knowingly false, 'fake news', corruption-abetting, election-rigging journalism, concealing and enabling the destruction of constitutional, lawful governance in New York State, culminating in corrupt candidates running on the 2025 election ballots – and, in particular, for New York City mayor, for New York City public advocate, for Manhattan borough president, for Manhattan district attorney, for Brooklyn district attorney, and to be district attorneys in approximately a dozen other counties throughout the state – and their election." (italics in the original, underlining added).

In addition to furnishing the lawsuit to you for your book and other scholarship, perhaps you would be interested in participating in it as an amicus curiae or as paid counsel to CJA, which, because I am not a lawyer, I cannot represent.

As will swiftly become apparent to you, the lawsuit is a summary judgment case, as there is NO defense to it, factually or legally. The SOLE issue is the magnitude of compensatory, presumed, and punitive damages – a jury determination that will reasonably be a great many billions of dollars. The district court's irregular handling of the lawsuit, highlighted by my November 19th letter to the district court judge, only reinforces this – as does my drafted responding affidavit, for submission in January, disposing, at the outset, and before defendants are even served, of a subject matter jurisdiction defense of standing.

I would appreciate speaking with you about the foregoing, as soon as possible.

Needless to say, if you are unable to participate in the lawsuit, I would appreciate your recommendations of other constitutional law professors and civic-minded attorneys – or, better yet, your forwarding this e-mail to them, directly, so that no time is wasted in putting together a crackerjack legal team for what is clearly monumental and fundamental to “sustainable constitutional democracy”.

Thank you.
