TO: New York City Bar Association General Counsel Lauren Axelrod

This responds to your below June 14th e-mail, responding to my June 13th e-mail, also below. You state: "The Association will not be endorsing [my] position in the referenced lawsuit."

Please advise:

- (1) who, at "The Association", made the decision;
- (2) what is the unspecified "position" to which you refer;
- (3) what facts and law presented by "the referenced lawsuit" does "The Association" contest.

As your cc's are the same as my cc's, I call upon Mr. Murray, as chair of the City Bar's Government Ethics & State Affairs Committee, and Mr. Davis, presumably a member, to each identify what their own "position" is with respect to the "ethics commission reform act of 2022". Do they contend that it was constitutionally and lawfully enacted and that it does not wipe out important, enforceable, rights of complainants and the public? And what is the "position" of the Committee's other members – and how many are they? Have they been furnished with "the referenced lawsuit", whose NYSCEF link is here.

I await your expeditious response – and theirs.

Thank you.

Ms. Sassower,

The Association will not be endorsing your position in the referenced lawsuit. As to your request for information about committee rosters, that information is available to City Bar members in good standing who log into our website and visit our City Bar Central page.

Best,
Lauren

TO: New York City Bar Association General Counsel Lauren Axelrod

Following up our phone conversation earlier this afternoon (212-382-6600 x6674), I herein reiterate my request that the NYC Bar Association discharge its ethical, professional, and civic responsibilities with respect to CJA's pro bono, public interest lawsuit to VOID the "ethics commission reform act of 2022" – as to which, on Friday, June 17th, I will be arguing in support of a TRO before Albany County Supreme Court Justice Peter Lynch. I initially made that request by a June 9th e-mail to Ed Murray, chair of the City Bar's Government Ethics & State Affairs Committee and to former City Bar President Evan Davis, presumably a member of that committee, but acting, as "manager" of a separate Committee to Reform the State Constitution – both part of a "JCOPE Must Go" Coalition. I received no response from either of them or from City Bar Senior Policy Counsel Maria Cilenti, also cc'd.

I herein request a written response to that June 9th e-mail – and additionally request that the City Bar endorse my above-attached yesterday's letter to New York's 15 law school deans who comprise the "independent review committee" of the "ethics commission reform act of 2022", re-sent today by the below e-mail. The letter also requests that the 15 law school deans discharge their ethical, professional, and civic responsibilities with respect to the lawsuit and TRO – and, as to the endorsement I here seek from the City Bar, I also request a written response.

I will reserve to a later time recitation of the multitude of serious and substantial conflicts of interest that you, other staff, officers, and members of the City Bar have with respect to my requests herein. Suffice to emphasize, as I did when we spoke, that the City Bar has a posted conflict of interest

policy. Observance is mandatory – and violation by a City Bar officer or member is grounds for sanction, including expulsion from the Association, and, with regard to staff, grounds for discharge.

Finally, I again reiterate my request for the names of the members of the Government Ethics & State Affairs Committee that you refused to provide and which, as I stated to you, I have not found identified on any of its reports and testimony, by contrast to the names of the members of the predecessor Committee on Government Ethics, appearing on the last page of the City Bar's March 14, 2014 "Hope for JCOPE" report (p. 64) that the City Bar submitted to the JCOPE/LEC Review Commission in connection with Mr. Davis' testimony before it on October 14, 2015, which was in tandem with that of fellow committee member Daniel Karson.

Thank you.

Following up my yesterday's e-mailing to you of the above attached, here & here, inadvertently omitting SUNY-Buffalo Law School Dean Abramovsky, I am sending it again to you this morning – Monday, June 13th – to further ensure that it is not overlooked, again sending it to the other cc's, from which I yesterday also inadvertently omitted Albany County Supreme Court Justice Lynch.

Below is my June 9th e-mail giving notice to respondents/defendants of the Friday, June 17th oral argument before Justice Lynch on the TRO.

Thank you.

This follows my phone and e-mail communications with you and/or your offices on Tuesday, Wednesday, and today concerning the lawsuit against you, Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc., et al. v. New York State Joint Commission on Public Ethics, et al., filed in Albany County (#904235-22).

Next Friday, June 17th, at 2 p.m., oral argument will be had, in Albany County Supreme Court at 16 Eagle Street, before Justice Peter Lynch, on petitioners/plaintiffs' request for a TRO to stay the "ethics commission reform act of 2022" – Part QQ of Education, Labor, Housing, and Family Assistance Budget Bill #S.8006-C/A.9006-C – from taking effect on July 8, 2022 and to enjoin JCOPE from closing, pending final determination of the lawsuit's June 6, 2022 verified petition/complaint and its accompanying order to show cause. At issue is the sixth cause of action (¶¶78-85) that Part QQ was enacted unconstitutionally, unlawfully, and by fraud.

On June 17th, I will serve you with hard copies of the papers. In the meantime, you will not be hampered in the slightest in preparing, fully, for the oral argument, as all the papers are available electronically, via NYSCEF (New York State Courts Electronic Filing). The direct link to the electronic docket of the case is here. You can also access the verified petition/complaint, the order to show cause, and my accompanying affidavit from CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org – and the direct link is here. Indeed, accessing the case via NYSCEF and CJA's website will enable you to access the scores, if not hundreds, of substantiating links petitioners/plaintiffs' papers contain, not accessible from the hard copies.

So that I might be guided accordingly in the number of copies to reproduce – a not inconsiderable expense – please advise if you will waive service of the hard copies, as superfluous.

Justice Lynch's principal law clerk, Stehle Hetman-Mika, is herewith cc'd, as discussed with her.

Thank you.
