

Subject: Re: Legal assistance: lawsuit vs NYT for libel & journalistic fraud

Date: 11/21/2005, 9:53 AM

From: Elena Ruth Sassower <judgewatchers@aol.com>

To: Martin London <mlondon@paulweiss.com>

cc: diane.zimmerman@nyu.edu

Organization: Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc.

Dear Mr. London:

Thank you for your prompt response.

However, my letter to you stated – and underlined for emphasis –

"for purposes of ensuring that the complaint is properly pleaded, I am prepared to personally pay – and in cash – whatever consultation and expert fees are sought." (at p. 3).

Consequently, I would appreciate your advice as to the top media law specialists – including at your own law firm – who I could retain for such critical purpose.

Thank you.

Elena Sassower, Plaintiff

Sassower, et al. v. The New York Times, et al.

Martin London wrote on 11/18/2005, 3:06 PM:

Ms. Sassower:

I have read your letter. I know no lawyers who would represent you or your organization on a contingency or a pro bono basis.

Very truly yours,

Martin London | Partner

Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP

1285 Avenue of the Americas | New York, NY 10019-6064

(212) 373-3197 (Direct Phone) | (212) 492-0197 (Direct Fax)

mlondon@paulweiss.com | www.paulweiss.com

This message is intended only for the use of the Addressee and may contain information that is privileged and confidential. If you are not the intended recipient, you are hereby notified that any dissemination of this communication is strictly prohibited. If you have received this communication in error, please erase all copies of the message and its attachments and notify us immediately.