Dear Ms. Sassower:

You asked on Friday during the symposium last why I had not responded to your correspondence in December, and I had indicated that I did not recall it. Prompted by your supplying a copy, and on investigating, I now see that the letter in fact was a broadside sent to everyone connected with the Program in Law and Journalism, and that our co-director, Professor Cameron Stracher, answered you by email not once but twice. As I now reconstruct it, I did not think then that the same letter to people at the same institution required separate answers, and I adhere to that belief. As Mr. Stracher has made clear, your agenda and ours are different.

Sincerely,

Jethro K. Lieberman
