Subject: Your assigned FOIL numbers: #3422 and #3483 -- & the status of CJA's May 21, 2021 FOIL request concerning the NYS Law Revision Commission
Attachments: Sassower (#3483) - Letter - 6.3.21.pdf

TO: Executive Chamber Records Access Officer/FOIL Counsel Jaclyn Clemmer

Your “(#3483)” reference for your above-attached June 3, 2021 letter, which you sent me by the below June 3, 2021 e-mail, is erroneous. Your attached letter identifies my request as “#3422”, which is the number you assigned to my April 29, 2021 FOIL request entitled “Retention of amicus curiae counsel in Delgado v NYS (Albany Co. #907537-18; 3rd Dept #529556)”. You acknowledged that request on May 6, 2021, with the assigned number #3422” – and substantively responded by your August 13, 2021 letter, with three enclosures: #1: contract #2: 9-22-20 invoice #3: 10-14-20-invoice.

That being said – and notwithstanding I sent you but a single FOIL request on and dated April 29, 2021 – you sent me two further letters identifying “#3483” as the number assigned to my April 29, 2021 FOIL request. These were letters dated July 1, 2021 and July 30, 2021.

Is it possible that “#3483” is the number you assigned to my May 21, 2021 FOIL request concerning the New York State Law Revision Commission, as I received from you neither an acknowledgment or response. My May 21, 2021 e-mail transmitting it to you is here – and, for your further convenience, I will also forward you the original. Please advise as to the status of that request.

Thank you.
