Dear Ms. Sassower:

This is in reply to your letter of "January 31, 1995"
(sic).

As Administrator and Counsel, I usually make recommendations on complaints. The Commission decides whether to dismiss or investigate each complaint; many complaints are dismissed by the Commission because they lack merit on their face; to reiterate, that determination is made by the Commission.

The pages you sent us are from the Slavin record in the first proceeding brought against the judge.

I enclose the cover page you requested.

Very truly yours,

Gerald Stern
