I'm going to re-send my written testimony to you in about a half hour, as I noticed I inadvertently dropped an endnote, when I transitioned from footnotes. Also, I've added a first endnote with the direct link to where I've posted the testimony.

Sorry for any inconvenience this might cause.

Subject: Written Testimony -- March 29th public hearing at NY Law School

Dear Emily,

Attached is the written testimony I read at today's hearing, excepting the endnotes, which I did not read.

The only correction I have made to the written testimony is as to the amount of Vice-Chair Austin's and Commissioner Carni's financial interests in the judicial pay raises that underlie my July 8, 2022 complaints. My August 4th letter, about which I was testifying, put the amount of their claw-back liability at "approximately three quarters of a million dollars each" (at p. 6), not the "approximately half a million dollars each" I misstated in testifying. I have, therefore, made that correction – and I think it is the more accurate estimation of the cumulative amount of judicial pay raises that Vice-Chair Austin received from April 2012 to January 2022 and Commissioner Carni received from April 2012 to February 2022, when they respectively left the bench.

CJA's webpage for the testimony is here.

Thank you.

Dear Emily,

I assume I can defer my 5-minute testimony to the end of the hearing – and I so-request for the reason I have indicated.

Thank you.

Elena

Hi Elena,

In order to be fair to all speakers, each speaker is allotted 5 minutes to provide verbal testimony. Anything beyond that may be submitted in writing by email or in hard copy tomorrow. All written comments will be reviewed. Thank you.

Emily

Subject: A Question -- RE: Request to testify, in person, at Mar. 29th public hearing at NY Law School -- plus FOIL request

Following up on our below e-mail exchange yesterday, my drafted testimony is about 8-1/2 minutes and I do not believe I can cut it down further, without sacrificing intelligibility. Would it be possible to shift my time slot from 10:35 am to the end, so that the additional 3-1/2 minutes I require might be more easily accommodated, especially if ample time remains until 2 pm?

Thank you.

TO: Commission on Ethics and Lobbying in Government

I request to testify, in person, at the Commission's public hearing to be held at New York Law School this Wednesday, March 29th.

Additionally, as it appears that I was not among the "more than 200 people" that Executive Director Berland identified as having been notified by letter of the March 29th public meeting (VIDEO of Commission's March 14th meeting of its communications subcommittee, at 4 hrs, 46 mins.), I request, pursuant to FOIL (Public Officers Law Article VI):

- (1) a copy of such letter and its transmitting e-mail;
- (2) records reflecting the names of the people and/or entities so-favored with direct notification, so that I might discern the criteria used;
- (3) records setting forth the criteria for direct notification;
- (4) records of notification to the press.

I take this opportunity to note that I have received no response from the Commission to my below two FOIL requests of March 17th and March 20th – and the requested items have not been posted to the Commission's website.

Thank you.
