Subject: Is NY's new Public Campaign Financing & Election Commission constitutional?

Is New York's new Public Campaign Financing & Election Commission constitutional?

Or doesn't it matter? How about getting expert opinion from New York's 13 law schools, multitudinous bar associations, universities, colleges, think-tanks, and institutes?

To help get the ball rolling, here's the link to CJA's letter to the editor that the New York Law Journal published yesterday afternoon on its website, <https://www.law.com/newyorklawjournal/2019/08/20/a-call-for-scholarship-civic-engagement-amicus-curiae-before-the-nycoa/>, responding to a perspective column entitled "It's Legally Perilous to Have a Commission Responsible for Election Laws".

By the way, CJA's website, www.judgewatch.org, not only posts the full record of CJA v. Cuomo, but it aggregates records of the six other lawsuits, currently unfolding in state and federal courts, challenging the constitutionality of the delegation of legislative powers to commissions/committees. These six lawsuits are listed at pages 2-3 of CJA's August 9, 2019 letter to the Court of Appeals, as part of a "NOTICE" to Attorney General Letitia James of her duty to provide the Court with an "appropriate status report" about them. Additionally, CJA's webpage for the August 9th letter posts links to webpages created for each of the six lawsuits, with their records.

Suffice to note that among the six, Delgado v. New York State, has now joined CJA v. Cuomo at the Court of Appeals – a notice of DIRECT appeal to the Court of Appeals having been filed by its plaintiffs on August 9th, solely on the issue of constitutionality.

I am available to assist you – and to be interviewed.

Thank you.
