Thank you for your examination of what has gone on with the FY2020-21 budget. Goodell, a lawyer, is not just ineffectual, but a posturer – and I have years of correspondence with him to prove it. This includes with respect to the March 18, 2020 letter – as to which I stand corrected in stating, as I did in my yesterday's 1st e-mail to you, that I received no responses. I did get an e-mail response, from Goodell and I will send it to you momentarily. It is, by the way, posted on CJA's webpage of outreach for the March 18 letter, here: <http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/searching-nys/2020-legislative/outreach-3-18-20-ltr-legislators.htm>.

Insofar as the link you sent me to Goodell's April 1st remarks on the Assembly floor, his duty – unless he denied or disputed the accuracy of my March 18, 2020 letter – which he did not -- was to "whistle-blow", and not only about the unconstitutionality of 6 of the Governor's 7 "Article VII bills" – but of "three men in a room", behind-closed-doors, package deal-making, etc – as to which, as he knows, the records in CJA's citizen-taxpayer actions establishes the People's entitlement to summary judgment, thwarted by a double-whammy of fraud by judges, in tandem with the attorney general.

I am available to speak with you directly by phone, which would be more efficient.

Thank you, again. This is HUGE!

Just from reading parts of the letter and what you previously emailed, you may want to see what Assemblyman Goodell, the minority leader in the Assembly, mentioned on the constitutionality of the budget bill before it was passed: https://nystateassembly.granicus.com/MediaPlayer.php?view\_id=6&clip\_id=5446&meta\_id=115609

I think the interesting part there is him mentioning the severability clause. So the budget itself would still be valid even if the non-budgetary parts of it are unconstitutional.

With best regards,
Martin.
