Has the Daily News examined, at all, the Legislature’s OWN budget – the necessity of which I alerted your reporter Denis Slattery to three weeks ago and yesterday in e-mails sent to the roster of the Legislative Correspondents Association.

To assist you in informing New York taxpayers about the “$273,921,877” legislative budget they will be paying for – as to which there has been NO legislative budget hearing – above-attached is my February 15th written testimony exclusively on that subject, setting forth 38 questions to be asked of Temporary Senate President Stewart-Cousins and Assembly Speaker Heastie about the Legislature’s budget and Governor Hochul’s expansion of it in Legislative/Judiciary Appropriation Bill #S.4001/A.3001.

This written testimony, timely-submitted for the Legislature’s February 15th budget hearing on “local government officials/general government”, was not posted on the Senate and Assembly webpages for the hearing, here and here, until after my February 22nd e-mail to Senate Finance Committee Chair Krueger and Assembly Ways and Means Committee Chair Weinstein about its non-posting. I have yet to receive any response to the e-mail’s inquiry as to whether the testimony was distributed to ALL Senate and Assembly members for their review – and to which staff.

I am available to answer your questions – and to give you the lead on further developments in this important story, to be embodied in a third press alert following Governor Hochul’s 30-day amendments, due this Friday, March 3rd.

Thank you.
