Subject: sent to PBS public editor at 1:35 pm via website:
<https://www.pbs.org/publiceditor/feedback/>

It's been a week and a half since I e-mailed to publiceditor@pbs.org my May 15th complaint against PBS Member Stations WMHT and WCNY for journalistic fraud -- and I have received no acknowledgment or response from Public Editor Ricardo Sandoval-Palos, or from Senior Associate Public Editor Daniel Macy, or from the complained-against reporters and management who I cc'd. Is this not concerning? What are PBS' procedures for complaints?

The webpage on which my May 15th complaint is posted is here: <https://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/press-suppression/public-media/pbs-stations/5-15-23-complaint-to-public-editor.htm>.

Please advise.

Thank you.
