Subject: Your Reporting on the NYS Budget, the Judicial Pay Raises, & the 2024 Elections for ALL 213 Legislative Seats, starting with Temporary Senate President Stewart-Cousins & Assembly Speaker Heastie

TO: Albany Legislative Correspondents Association Reporters

Your reporting does NOT reveal ANYTHING irregular, let alone unlawful and unconstitutional, about the NYS budget. Nor about the judicial pay raises scheduled to take effect April 1st. Why is that?

Did you not examine CJA's just-commenced lawsuit I sent you, three days ago, by the below, setting forth the law and facts as to the judicial pay raises and the budget – and suing the Commission on Legislative, Judicial and Executive Compensation, the Governor, Lt. Governor, the Chief Judge, the Chief Administrative Judge, ALL Legislators, the Attorney General, and the Comptroller for violating their duties with respect thereto.

Will you be reporting on the lawsuit – and, if not, why not?

And do you contest the lawsuit's relevance to this year's unfolding elections for all 213 legislative seats – starting with the seats held by Temporary Senate President Stewart-Cousins and Assembly Speaker Heastie, who are the named legislative respondents/defendants. The petitioning period for citizens to challenge them ENDS in less than ten days, but, to date, your reporting of their corruption in office has been ZERO. So, too, the petitioning period ENDS in less than ten days for challenging the other re-election-seeking legislative incumbents, whose corruption, in office, has also garnered ZERO reporting by you.

AS TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE, please forward this e-mail to your editors/publishers, without delay, so that they can be fully alerted to the situation – and their First Amendment responsibilities.

I am available to answer questions, no matter how early or late.

Thank you

Subject: Today, at 3pm, in Albany Supreme Court -- oral argument for TRO to stay "force of law" judicial pay raise report from taking effect April 1st & disbursement of $34.6M for the judicial pay raises

TO: Albany Legislative Correspondents Association Reporters – starting with New York Law Journal Reporter Brian Lee

Oral argument is being held today, at 3 pm, in Albany Supreme Court (Justice Christina Ryba), for a TRO to stay the “force of law” Dec 4, 2023 Report of the (3rd) Commission on Legislative, Judicial & Executive Compensation from taking effect, on April 1, 2024, giving pay raises to judges – and enjoining disbursement of the $34.M appropriated for it in the legislative budget.

The lawsuit, brought by the non-partisan, non-profit citizens organization, Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA), “on behalf of the People of the State of New York & the Public Interest”, is based on CJA’s January 18, 2024 Opposition Report, analyzing the Commission’s Report, line-by-line, and demonstrating it to be a “false instrument”, violating the express requirements for pay raise recommendations – and knowingly so.

It sues the Commission and the Governor Hochul, Lt. Governor Delgado, Chief Judge Wilson, Chief Administrative Judge Zayas, Temporary Senate President Stewart-Cousins, the Senate, Assembly Speaker Heastie, the Assembly, Attorney General James, and Comptroller DiNapoli, all of whom have had CJA’s Opposition Report for more than two months, have not denied or disputed its accuracy in any respect – nor their duty with respect thereto – but have taken no remedial steps.

Here’s the NYSCEF docket for the case, #902654-24. The proposed OSC for a TRO for Justice Ryba to sign today is #18. The short verified petition/complaint is #1, and CJA’s January 18, 2024 Opposition Report is #6.

I will be at Albany Supreme Court for the oral argument, notwithstanding it will be held, electronically, via TEAMS. I am reachable by cell, 646-220-7987.

Thank you.
