Your "About Us" webpage does not indicate the counties of New York that are within your "Central New York" range of political coverage.

What are they – and do they include Cortland, Madison, and Tompkins counties, which are among the 14 New York counties with D.A. elections this year? Also, on what news sources do you rely for information about the performance, in office, of the state legislators from your counties of coverage, most running for re-election.

Thank you.
