Dear Edwin,

I have just seen your e-mail. Thank you. I trust you are contacting me by way of follow-up to my January 4th e-mail as to what is happening, behind-the-scenes, in the Cuomo v. COELIG case. Call me, at your convenience, anytime. It's an explosive, media-suppressed story, giving perspective to what occurred at today's oral argument.

Again, thank you.

Subject: Interview Request (Time Sensitive)

Dear Elena,

My name is Edwin J. Viera and I'm the New York producer from Public News Service. I'd like to speak with you about the oral arguments before the NYS Court of Appeals about COELIG's constitutionality and the challenge brought by former Governor Andrew Cuomo. I'm hoping to do an interview tomorrow or Thursday morning, though I can be flexible. The interview would only be about ten to fifteen minutes over the phone at the number listed below. Let me know as soon as possible, thank you.
