Will you be reporting on Mamdani’s corruption as a NYS assemblyman, involving the state budget and his pocketing of pay raises for himself that he knew to be fraudulent? The EVIDENCE is furnished by my March 14th e-mail to Mamdani entitled “ELECTIONS ARE A TIME OF ACCOUNTABILITY”, which opened as follows.

“Elections are a time of accountability. Based on your on-the-job performance as a state assemblyman, why do you believe yourself fit to be mayor of New York City – or for any office of public trust?”.

Mamdani did not respond – and I sent the March 14th e-mail to him a second time, with a supplement, by a March 17th email, and then a third time, when I cc’d him on my March 18th e-mail to the roster of reporters of the Legislative Correspondents Association (LCA), and then a fourth time, when I cc’d him on my March 20th e-mail to The New York Times, New York Post, Daily News, New York Law Journal, Wall Street Journal, and Associated Press. Thereafter, I sent the LCA reporters two additional e-mails, on April 7th and April 18th, as to what was unfolding pertaining to the FY2025-26 state budget.

Will you be getting Mamdani’s response to the March 14th “ELECTIONS ARE A TIME OF ACCOUNTABILITY” e-mail? Isn’t it obvious that it – and his votes, seven weeks later, approving the FY2025-26 budget bills – establish that he cannot be elected NYC mayor because he must be indicted for larceny and corruption – and that he will be convicted? Why don’t you confirm that fact with former Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of New York Jim Walden, running for mayor as an Independent candidate, with an anti-corruption policy platform featured on his campaign website. By the way, are you aware that Mamdani’s campaign website contains no anti-corruption platform?

Also, will you be reporting on the corruption of other NYC Democratic primary winners, such as NYS Senator Brad Hoylman-Sigal, running for Manhattan borough president. The EVIDENCE of his corruption as a NYS senator is furnished by my March 16th e-mail to him, likewise entitled "ELECTIONS ARE A TIME OF ACCOUNTABILITY..." – part of my March 18th and March 20th e-mails to which both Mamdani and Hoylman-Sigal were cc'd.

Finally, if it is not your intention to report on the corruption of NYS legislators Mamdani and Hoylman-Sigal – and of NYC Democratic primary winner-incumbents NYC Public Advocate Jumanne Williams, Manhattan D.A. Alvin Bragg, and Brooklyn D.A. Eric Gonzalez – notwithstanding the EVIDENCE is prima facie, open-and-shut, as to ALL FIVE – please identify the reason, and as immediately as possible, as TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE, obviously.

I am available to answer questions.

Thank you.
