Dear Andrew:

I was stunned and disappointed by your failure to get back to me following our August 1st meeting, including by returning any of my voice mail messages inquiring as to the status of your review of the evidentiary materials I left with you establishing the corruption of the NYS Commission on Judicial Conduct. Enclosed is my letter of today's date to your superior, Robert Brill, to whom I spoke earlier today. I regret that such was necessary, but you left me no choice.

Yours for a quality judiciary,
