Dear Ms. Sassower:

This is in response to your letters to me dated November 13, 2001, January 7, 2002, February 20, 2002 and March 6, 2002 asking that our Committee to become involved with the litigation initiated by you, as "Coordinator of The Center for Judicial Accountability" against the Commission on Judicial Conduct. You have asked our Committee to review voluminous papers in connection with your litigation against the Commission and to intervene on an amicus basis in support of your position in that ongoing litigation.

Our Committee has considered your request and has determined not to grant it or to become involved in any way in your litigation against the Commission.

You left a considerable volume of papers at my office in connection with your request. You should make arrangements with our office manager, Francesca, to have that material picked up at a mutually convenient time. Francesca can be reached at 212-818-1110 during normal business hours.

Very truly yours,

A. Rene Hollyer
