Dear Mr. Mahoney,

As briefly discussed, enclosed is the revised story proposal. Among other things, it more clearly identifies Spitzer's conflict of interest born of his relationship with the Commission on Judicial Conduct's long-time Chairman, Henry T. Berger. Also, it more clearly identifies how Governor Pataki fits into the systemic governmental corruption, which Spitzer has been covering up.

Within the next days, I will forward you focused questions to ask Spitzer about the lawsuit against the Commission and about his "public integrity unit". These will sink him -- AND THE GOVERNOR.

Regards.
