RE: Arranging a Meeting with Russ Hoyle

Dear Larry:

Thank you for your follow-up.

For your convenience, enclosed are all six of my letters to Michael Arenson, dated November 30, 2001, December 10, 2001, December 20, 2001, January 22, 2002, February 25, 2002, and March 7, 2002. These summarize the evidentiary significance of the file of my public interest lawsuit against the New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct – and the benefit to the Daily News in scheduling a meeting for me to make a summary presentation on issues focal to the Daily News' "Judging the Judges" editorial series, inter alia, (1) the readily-verifiable CORRUPTION of the NYS Commission on Judicial Conduct; (2) the readily-verifiable CORRUPTION of judicial appointment/ "merit selection"; and (3) the readily-verifiable DIRECT RESPONSIBILITY of New York's top public officers -- Chief Judge Kaye, Governor Pataki, Attorney General Spitzer, and Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Lack.

I would appreciate if, after reviewing these letters, you would pass them and the Metroland article, "Appeal for Justice" (which I faxed you last Tuesday) to Russ Hoyle, with my request for a meeting. As my lawsuit against the Commission is now before the Court of Appeals, with my motion to disqualify all seven of its judges returnable next Monday, May 20th, time is of the essence.

Yours for a quality judiciary,

Elena
