From:	Blau, Reuven <rblau@nydailynews.com>
Sent:	Thursday, June 20, 2013 12:15 PM
To:	Center for Judicial Accountability
Subject:	RE: Your June 4th article: "CIVIL SERVICE: State managers seeks raises to bring their salaries higher than those of subordinates"

Thanks for the feedback.

Can you give me some more info on the alleged corruption?

Reuven Blau
NY Daily News Reporter
212-210-2200 (work)
646-591-1256 (cell)

From: Center for Judicial Accountability [mailto:elena@judgewatch.org]
Sent: Thursday, June 20, 2013 12:07 PM
To: Blau, Reuven
Subject: Your June 4th article: "CIVIL SERVICE: State managers seeks raises to bring their salaries higher than those of subordinates"

Dear Mr. Blau,

There's a powerful story to be written about legislative corruption – the topic de jour – involving the "Pay Commission Act", identified by your June 4th article. Indeed, the story will not only expose legislative corruption, but the corruption of William Thompson, Jr. who headed what your article incorrectly calls the "judicial salary commission".

I would be happy to furnish you full details and documentation. Meantime, here's the direct link to our webpage pertaining to S.2953 and A.246 – the bill establishing a special commission on compensation for managerial and confidential state employees, NOW on the Senate and Assembly floor for a vote: http://www.judgewatch.org/web-pages/judicial-compensation/judicial-compensation-progeny.htm .

Elena Sassower, Director
Center for Judicial Accountability, Inc. (CJA)
914-455-4373