RE: Challenge to the NYS Commission on Judicial Conduct

MESSAGE:

I struck out the third time I called. You were away from my desk. I can be reached after 7 p.m. this evening or tomorrow morning before 11:00. you

Our court challenge to the New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct is on tomorrow at 2:00 p.m. before Justice Herman Cahn, at the Supreme Court at 60 Centre Street, Room 351.

We expect it to be a particularly exciting event. I am not free to disclose the precise details by fax, but will gladly do so should you call.

In the event you are unable to attend, please see that a Post reporter is assigned to this important story.

Again, a copy of the Post's recent editorial on the subject of the Commission's protectionism is enclosed, for your convenience or for whoever else may be assigned.
