Dear Mrs. Sady,

I have discussed the Ninth Judicial District with Jim Feron, my Westchester bureau chief, and Wendy Sclight, the editor of our Westchester Weekly section. I agree that there's an important case there. But at this point, absent some other compelling news development, we're going to wait for the court ruling before writing again.

Looking ahead to the ruling, I would be interested in seeing Doris Sassower's brief.

Yes, I know Gabriel. She and Raphael were good friends. Riding Metro-North to and from work each day, I'm frankly envious of people like Gabriel and Stephen who had the wisdom to move west, but it is always a pleasure to hear that they are happy and well.

Sincerely,

George Judson
